KUALA LUMPUR: TDM Bhd's subsidiary TDM Plantation Sdn Bhd (TDMP) has set a target of having 100 per cent local general workers and 70 per cent local harvesters in its oil palm plantations by 2027. 's subsidiary TDM Plantation Sdn Bhd (TDMP) has set a target of having 100 per cent local general workers and 70 per cent local harvesters in its oil palm plantations by 2027.

TDMP chief executive officer Hamdan Ibrahim said this commitment exemplifies the group's investment in empowering the local community and reducing the reliance on foreign workers.

"Through joint efforts, we aim to enhance the socio-economic conditions of the people of Terengganu. We are confident that these endeavours are crucial not only for the prosperity of our business but also for the overall well-being of the local community, both in the short and long term," he said in a statement today.

TDM Bhd executive director Najman Kamaruddin said that to achieve the goal, TDMP plans to increase the use of mechanisation and precision agriculture technology in the plantations to increase productivity and efficiency and reduce dependence on human labour.
