KMI Healthcare Announces New Development for KMI Tawau Medical Centre

Kuala Lumpur, 20 January 2025 - Kumpulan Medic Iman Sdn. Bhd. (“KMI Healthcare”) is proud to announce a major step forward in enhancing healthcare services in Sabah. Through its wholly-owned subsidiary, KMI Tawau Medical Centre Sdn Bhd (KMITMC) has entered into a binding term sheet with Tawau Healthcare Sdn Bhd (THSB) to develop and upgrade medical infrastructure in Tawau.

The proposal features the construction of a state-of-the-art New Specialist Hospital Building, designed to significantly expand the range of medical services offered at KMI Tawau Medical Centre. This new block will enable the hospital to cater to a broader spectrum of healthcare needs, enhancing its capacity to deliver specialized medical care. With modern infrastructure and advanced facilities, the new building aims to meet the evolving expectations of patients and the growing demand for high-quality healthcare in Tawau, Sabah.

Additionally, the proposal includes extensive renovation works for the existing building, aimed at improving patient care and optimizing operational efficiency. These upgrades will modernize the current facility, ensuring seamless integration with the new block while creating a more comfortable and efficient environment for patients and staff alike. This development reflects the strong strategic collaboration between KMITMC and THSB, highlighting a shared commitment to elevating healthcare standards in the region.

Dr. Rayney Azmi bin Ali, Chief Executive Officer said in his statement “KMI Healthcare remains focused on its mission to provide quality healthcare services while contributing to the socioeconomic development of the regions it operates in. The company looks forward to the successful completion of this project, which aligns with its strategic objectives.”
