Our main purpose is to share our blessings, extend support to those in need and promote broader social well-being."

The programme has grown into a platform to strengthen social bonds, expand collaborative networks and instil empathy across the community. According to Haji Najman, this initiative also emphasises noble values such as charity, compassion and responsibility towards the asnaf which is the core principles rooted not only in Islam but also in universal humanity.

Aligned with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (UNSDGs), this initiative supports SDG 1 (No Poverty) by providing direct financial assistance and improving the quality of life for the asnaf and underprivileged, thereby addressing poverty in all its forms. It also contributes to SDG 17 (Partnerships for the Goals) through collaboration between TDM, government agencies such as MAIDAM, the 'Pusat Khidmat Masyarakat DUN Sura' and local leadership. Such multi-stakeholder partnerships are key to achieving comprehensive sustainable development.
